

Consent to extra work by street grading contractor.

We consent that the contractor, in grading _____ street between points, may be required to slope off the banks or sides of all cuts made in the street, to the extent deemed necessary by the city engineer to prevent earth or rock falling from the adjacent property onto the street, and to include the cost of removing earth and rocks from the slope or sides of the embankment, in tax bills issued for the grading of the street.